Sub: Registration of Students in MyBharat Portal – reg.

Madam/Sir,

The Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India has launched the MyBharat (Mera Yuva Bharat) portal as a national platform to empower youth by connecting them to various developmental, volunteering, skill-building and nation-building opportunities. It aims to serve as a one-stop digital gateway for students to access programmes, competitions, internships, events, and community service initiatives of the Government of India.

Benefits for Students

Access to Government Schemes & Opportunities: Students can participate in national programmes, youth festivals, internships, volunteer work and skill initiatives.

Skill Development: Exposure to leadership, communication, teamwork, digital skills, social responsibility etc.

Recognition & Certificates: Students receive digital certificates for activities, volunteering hours, campaigns, and events.

Career Enhancement: Participation enhances resumes and improves employability.

Nation-Building Engagement: Youth get direct opportunities to contribute to community development, Swachhata campaigns, digital literacy, health awareness drives, etc.

Mandatory Registration of All Students

All colleges are instructed to ensure 100% registration of students (1st, 2nd & 3rd year UG/PG) on the MyBharat portal at the earliest. NSS/YRC/Rovers & Rangers shall monitor and report compliance to the Higher Education Department.

Step-by-Step Registration Process for Students attached at Annexure-I

Maintain a register of enrolled students with MyBharat ID numbers.

Ensure that students participate in upcoming campaigns/programmes hosted on MyBharat.

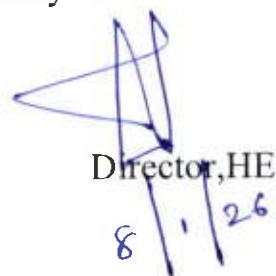

MyBharat is a flagship initiative to build a stronger and more responsible youth community. All Principals are requested to ensure timely and full compliance in the interest of students' holistic development.

Yours faithfully,

Director, HE
